

Acts 23:31 – Acts 24:24 Study Guide

1. Paul would stand trial before the Romans at least 3 times before he would ever reach Rome. Where did this first trial take place and before whom? (Refer back to 23:31-35)
2. Why do you think Ananias brought Tertullus the orator with him to Ceasarea? (24:1-2)
3. Read 24:2-9. What is your impression of Tertullus after reading his speech to Felix in these verses? Thinking back on previous chapters, what, if any, of his statements are false?
4. How does Paul's opening defense differ from that of Tertullus? (vs. 10)

9. Why did Felix continue to send for Paul? (vs. 26)

10. Why did Felix keep Paul in prison? (vs. 27)

11. In Acts 24, Paul gives us an uplifting example of Christian valor in difficult times. What are some of these characteristics and how can we exhibit them in our own walk with Christ?
